Re: Buker v. L&L Energy, Inc., et al., Docket No. 13-cv-6704

Dear Judge Abrams:

The parties have encountered complexities in the settlement process but are continuing to work together in the hope of achieving a full resolution of this action.

Specifically, due to the presence of a group of investors who may or may not be class members but have expressed an intention to opt out of the settlement class, the parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn the current deadline for filing settlement-approval papers, today, August 18, 2014, to allow these investors to provide sufficient documentation for the parties to determine these investors' claims.

Therefore, the parties respectfully request that the Court set a deadline of September 5, 2014 for the parties to submit a status report.

Respectfully submitted,
